CLASS DESCRIPTION

English Language Classes

ESL courses are for students with limited English language who want to improve their English speaking and listening skills. Courses are offered from beginning to advanced levels. Students learn English for success at work, in the community, or in further academic study.

The English as a Second Language Program has successfully served the needs of thousands of immigrant and refugee students since 1916. It is the largest and oldest ESL program in Colorado. The foundation of the program is a well-trained staff that is competent and committed.

Reading and Writing

Classes improve reading comprehension, sentence or paragraph structure, and grammar.

Speaking and Listening

Classes improve communication skills, pronunciation, understanding, and vocabulary.

Elective Classes

Classes on special topics such as TOEFL preparation, using computers, and English at work.

WHAT OUR STUDENTS SAY

"I was a nurse in my country for 34 years. After taking 6 months of ESL, I was able to enroll in the nursing program at Emily Griffith Opportunity School. The teachers are great and the staff is helpful. The career counselor helped me find a job. Thank you!"

"I think it's good for me to study in this school. I am reading, speaking, listening, and writing more English. Thank you."

"It is good for me because I came in 2003. I did not understand any English, but I study. Right now I talk English and I write English. All teachers are very nice and good. I am happy."
